

- 3) one semester at three credits of Advanced Yup'ik Eskimo
 - 4) one semester at three credits of Additional Topics in Advanced Yup'ik Eskimo
- (The above have been taught by Jacobson numerous times since 1974)
- 1) one semester at three credits of a survey of Eskimo-Aleut languages
 - 2) one or two semesters in duration, on the Siberian Yupik Eskimo (given nine times since 1980)
 - 3) course in Eskimo linguistics given for advanced students.

Publications:

1975 Yupiaruyulria (The One Who Wants to be a Traditional Yupiaq), in English, translated into Yup'ik by Mary Toyukak, Eskimo Language Workshop, Fairbanks, 13 pp.

1977 A Grammatical Sketch of Siberian Yupik Eskimo, Alaska Native Language Center, Fairbanks. 99 pp.

1977 (Central Alaskan) Yup'ik Eskimo Grammar, co-authored with Reed, Miyaoka, Afcan, and Krauss, Alaska Native Language Center, Fairbanks. 330 pp.

1982 "Types of Partial Nominalization in Central Yup'ik Eskimo" in

1990 Presented lecture on "Using Information from Various Yup'ik Dialects and Other Eskimo Languages to Enliven the Yup'ik Classroom" at the State of Alaska Bilingual/BiCultural Conference in Anchorage in February

1990 Made a presentation on "Eskimo Month Names" at the 7th International Inuit Studies Conference held in Fairbanks in August

1992 Presented a paper on "Tightly and Loosely Conjoined Clauses in Central and Siberian Yupik, and the Observational Construction in these Languages" at the 8th International Inuit Studies Conference held in Quebec City in September (?)

1995 Presented a paper on the "Central Yup'ik Dialect Situation with special reference to the Aglegmute" at conference of the American Anthropological Association in Atlanta in October

2001 Participated in round-table discussion of Eskimo dictionary making -- my emphasis on the Naukan dictionary -- at the Arctic Social Sciences Conference held in Quebec City in May 2004 Paper, History of the Naukan Yupik Eskimo Dictionary with Implications for a Future Dictionary of Siberian Yupik, read by colleague Lawrence Kaplan at Quebec symposium in honor of Michael Krauss, "Reversing Language and Knowledge Shift in the North", which I was unable to attend due to illness.

Works in Progress:

Revision of Central Alaskan Yup'ik Eskimo dictionary.

Gems of the Yup'ik Language (a book, undergoing revision, giving the cultural background of several hundred interesting Yup'ik words; modeled after Leo Rosten's Joys of Yiddish)