RE: Administrative Management Review EX and FR Positions

In my initial communication on October 1, 2020 regarding the Administrative Management Review, I did not include a list of administrative positions as mentioned in the memo under item 5. The Administrative Management Review is a review of positions at UAF and not a performance review of incumbents in the position. All positions named on the attached list should be reviewed during the process. Some of these positions may be vacant, have interims or acting incumbents, or may currently be in the recruitment stages to fill the position. Regardless of the status
